anada Ethnic Press Federation Reps Discuss Prolems With P.M. In Ottawa

ORONTO.—On January 29th, esentatives of the Canada nic Press Federation were re-ed for a lengthy expose of problems and projects of the ada Ethnic Press by the Ho-rable, Dr. Stanley Haidasz, ister of State for Multicultu-m. inister Haidasz and his offi- spent more than two hours ussing the problems of the nic Press and the program- of the Federation for the ing period. Among the sub-s discussed were several cultural projects, advertising, better communication between the Federal Government and the ethnic newspapers, and the possibility of a Press Officer in the office of the Prime Minister, as the English and French Press have at the present time. The Minister was very receptive to the various projects and suggestions and promised to take the necessary steps with other members of the Government and the Prime Minister.

At noon the delegation took part at a reception at which they met with the Prime Minister, the Right Honourable Pierre Elliot Trudeau, and the Ministers the Honourable Mitchell Sharp and the Honourable Robert Andras, as well as the head of the Prime Minister's Office, the former Member of Parliament, Mr. Martin O'Connell. The members of the delegation had an opportunity to discuss a number of problems of the Ethnic Press, and in a friendly address by the Prime Minister, they received an assurance that the Government will continue in its multicultural policy and support actions and project which will bring about progress among all Canadians.

For the fruitful and interesting luncheon with the Prime Minister, appreciation was extended by the President, Mr. Vladimir Mauko in English, and Dr. J. M. Kirschbaum in French.

The members of the delegation also contacted by phone other Cabinet Ministers and Senators and held a meeting of the Executive of the Federation at which various problems were discussed, such as the participation of our Federation in the Thinkers Conference, which is scheduled for the beginning of March and organizational matters concerning the Federation.

There is a justified hope that the trip of the delegation to Ottawa will be developed by meaningful achievements due to the genuine interest of the Honourable Dr. Haidasz to implement the multicultural policy.

Singer Shunned For Alleged Gangster Association

OKYO. — Miss Hibari Misora de her debut when she was 9 years old. At 36 now, she till the country's No. 1 popu- singer. She has often been erred to as "the sun that ne- sets" or simply "the queen."

ight now, however, she is k deep in trouble. Although e are no firm signs that the may be setting, at least it be said to be standing still he sky.

ost municipal halls through- the country have begun tting out her shows one af- another in the past month.

ayors and hall managers Tetsuya Kato, her 32-year- singer brother, is the heart the problem. They all refer a police statement that Kato a high-ranking member of a g which is affiliated with Yamaguchi-gumi, the na-'s most powerful gang head-rtered in Kobe.

olice say that Tetsuya be-gs to Yokohama's Masuda-i led by a gangster named hio Masuda.

ost mayors and hall man-rs have said that if Tetsuya e dropped from Miss Mis-'s shows, they would not d renting their halls to her.

ut Miss Misora has so far used to compromise. And it ks like as if there will be y a few of her shows to be n in this country for some e to come.

hat does Miss Misora have say about the biggest crisis her career? She refuses to k to the mass media as in past. Instead, her 60-year- mother, Mrs. Kimie Kato, aks for her daughter as usu-

Almost crying, Mrs. Kato told a Shukan Asahi correspondent in an exclusive interview: "We'll never let Tetsuya down. If the mayors don't change their minds, we'll just quit singing. We are determined to live even if we have to become day laborers.

"No entertainer can say he or she has nothing to do with gangsters. You can never put on a recital or a show without the help of promoters."

(Police say promoters are often gangsters themselves or have close ties with them. Shows and recitals are an important sources of revenue for gangsters, police say.)

Mrs. Kato frankly said, "Kobe Geino (Entertainments) has managed our business from the beginning — Yes, the agency owned by Mr. Kazuo Taoka."

(Taoka, reportedly ill in bed now, is the boss of the Yamaguchi-gumi.)

(Shigeru Shiozawa, the author of an inside story on the Japanese show business, says "Kobe Geino was once the biggest single money-maker for the Yamaguchi-gumi. And the Kobe Geino's biggest money-maker was Miss Misora.

"The easiest way for any gang to branch out into other parts of the country is to set up local offices for putting on shows and recitals.

"The Yamaguchi-gumi once took very good care of Miss Misora, enabling her to make inroads into many parts of the country. It was all on a give-and-take basis."

Mrs. Kato continued, "Mr. (Yoshio) Masuda, the boss of the Masuda-gumi, was Mr. Taoka's right-hand man. That was an old story. That's how we became friendly with each other. Mr. Masuda and our family were often together."

(Masuda and his right-hand man were arrested on Jan. 26 on charges of blackmail.)

Nicaragua Jpn. Suicides After Quake

MANAGUA, Nicaragua — A 74-year-old Japanese who owned a machine repair shop in the Nicaraguan capital of Managua shot himself dead Jan. 25, according to the Japanese Embassy.

He was Yasuji Yokota, originally from Koriyama City, Fukushima Prefecture. He was the only permanent resident of this Latin American country which was devastated by an earthquake last December.

In his suicide note addressed to the Japanese Embassy in Managua, Yokota said, "I tried as hard as I could, but my health is no longer up to it..."

Yokota emigrated to Nicaragua 45 years ago. After working at a power station, he started a machine repair shop in Managua. He returned to Japan at the outbreak of World War II. After the war ended, he went back to Nicaragua, reopened his shop and developed it into the largest repair shop in the city.

However, Nicaraguan authorities recently decided to demolish his house and shop as part of their plan to reconstruct the quake-ravaged city.

Deprived of his shop, Yokota reportedly was at a total loss.

Japanese people residing in the country donated a total of $1,000 to him at the initiative of the Japanese Embassy, but $30,000 would be needed to reconstuct the shop.

The Japanese Embassy cabled Fukushima Prefecture to help him make a fresh start. Gov. Morie Kimura of Fukushima. Instead 100,000 was sent to the bereaved family of the unfortunate emigrant.

Jail Best Place To Live For 70-Year Man

TOKYO. — Police released Yoshitaro Ito from prison recently, but the 70-year old man was back behind bars again recently because he believes older people are better treated there than on the outside.

Police say Ito has been imprisoned 47 times and has spent a total of 11 years and two months in prison since 1950. Ito explained to police that a man of his age finds it difficult to live on the amount which the government provides under a welfare program.

"In prison I get my meals and I have a place to stay," he said. "It is the best place."

As in his 46 earlier arrests, police said Ito's latest offense involved the non-payment of a restaurant bill.

Spring Snow - Mishima's First Of Last Three

SPRING SNOW, by Yukio Mishima. Translated by Michael Gallagher. Tuttle: Y700.

Reviewed by JOHNNY BAER

By now everyone has heard the story of Mishima, undoubtably Japan's most colorful and probably most talented author, personally delivering the last chapters of his final literary statement, The Sea of Fertility tetralogy, to his publisher the morning he committed ritual suicide at a Japan's Self-Defense Force Base.

"The tetralogy is his masterpiece, as he knew" Donald Keene has said, and Mishima himself told friends days before his death that, having put everything he thought and felt about life into the work, he felt empty, he had no more to say to the world.

Mishima has always had a flare for both the melodramatic and the morbid, be it in his life, his work, or his death. Spring Snow gives some evdence of his love of the former, but there is almost none of the morbidity that has characterized most of his works. This is not to suggest that it is comparable to say, his early novelette The Sound of the Waves, which while a nice little story — is nonetheless a very minor work. But it is in many ways a less passionate, and for less intricate, novel than most that have proceeded it, despite the fact that the story itself is one of a rather complicated, and very passionate, love.

It also lacks the tight construction of most of Mishima's novels something that his convoluted plot lines have required. His previous works have tended to start off a bit slowly, taking time to establish a backdrop of time, place and emotional texture, then gradually to build up a powerful momentum that drives their characters on to passionate and ineluctable climaxes.

Spring Snow, on the other hand, seems to move most rapidly in the opening chapters; in the bulk of the novel the pace is more characteristic of Victorian fiction than the highpowered prose of Mishima. And, while Mishima has always paid scrupulous attention to settings, at times it seems that in Spring Snow the stage itself has been given precedence over the drama enacted upon it.

The story is set in 1912, a time when Japan was beginning to fell the pull of militarism following its victory in the Russo-Japanese War seven years before, and when a new class system was beginning to replace the old hierarchy of pre-Meiji days. The hero, Kiyoaki Matsugae, is the 18-year-old son of a wealthy samurai who has grown up in the home of the aristocratic but financially pressed Ayakura family. His grandfather had been a hero of the Meiji Restoration, but his father is little more that on extremely rich social climber, not a despicable character by any means but hardly a model for his refined and idealistic son. It was with the hope of adding polish to the family's silver and gold, and thus boosting its social position, that he sent his son to live in the home of a count.

Count Ayakura has a beautiful daughter, Satoko, two years older than Kiyoaki. Although they have been friends since childhood, Kiyoaki finds his feelings toward her, and his toward him, present a constant threat to his tranquility; she is far more self-assured and worldly than he, and with a word can shatter any illusions of happiness he may have contrived. It is not until she is betrothed to an imperial prince, thus linking her fate with that of the nation, that Kiyoaki becomes aware of an all-consuming love for her that he has so often denied. He begins a mad (and treasonous) affair, which seems to attract him most because of its very impossibility. He possesses a reckless sort of elegance, and has determined to give his life over to nothing but the passion of the moment.

It is hard at times to feel the same sympathy for the self-willed and narcissistic lover that his creator obviously does, but the fragile web of emotions in which each character finds himself trapped holds one in suspense, awaiting a surely tragic end.

Unfortunately the end is not as powerful, nor as satisfying, as one has come to expect from Mishima. Rather than reach a climax, the plot is merely resolved. This is not to say that it is a failure — if Mishima were to produce a literary failure (as he did cinematically with "Yukoku") it would likely be a spectacular one. Spring Snow is not a failure, but a modest success; and more importantly, it serves as introduction to the three far more complex volumes to follow (which Tuttle promises as soon as is possible).

There is one welcome contrast to most of Mishima's work in Spring Snow, for perhaps the first time he has allowed himself to enjoy the humorous aspects of his characters. Kiyoaki's over-repressed servant Iinuma, at once self-condemning and self-righteous, is both pitifully appealing and pathetically funny, and Mishima's portaits of the new bourgeoisie, caught between the old and new orders and never sure of their status in either, are the most humorous sketches to be found in any of his novels.

The Japanese

By JACK SEWARD

302 Pages $6.95 Wm. Morrow & Co. Inc.

Here is a book that gives some true insight into the Japanese way of life. The important thing is that the book is written by someone who understands our values and our customs yet at the same time also understands the values and customs of the Japanese.

This is not merely a statistical study and comparison of different cultures. Since the author lived in Japan, and his wife is Japanese, there are many personal accounts and anecdotes that make the reading warm and at times humorous. It describes a different way of life from ours, for, although we hear of arranged marriages, yet these are communal baths where everyone goes to relax, entirely in the nude. The average tourist sees the people as smiling and friendly, yet to really get to know them seems an elusive idea. This isn't just strange coincidence — Jack Seward explains the reason behind it.

Perhaps there is more in this book than just nice reading. Throughout, mention is made to the future we have with Japan and why we should understand them a bit better — an understanding that should be judged according to their own values, not always only according to ours. After all, travelling is common today to many, and perhaps everyone should make some effort to understanding other people; and towards this end this book makes especially good reading.

tears, Mrs. Kato went on to say, "How vexing! Police have branded Tetsuya as a member of the Masuda-gumi. They haven't any sure evidence, have they?

"Police say my daughter's shows provide gangsters with funds. But Tetsuya is paid only Y50,000 a day for his role in the shows.

"Even if Tetsuya were a member of the gang. how could you say he was helping to finance the gang

"My daughter has been paying huge taxes into the Government's coffers for many, many years. What did we get for all these services? This shutting-out campaign. This is too much."

(Detectives of the Tokyo Metropolitan Police Board say, "Police strongly approve the shutting out of the Hibari shows, not because we have anuthing against her personally, but because we fear the box-office receipts from her shows flow into the coffer of gangsters.

"If her shows are staged at public halls under the sponsorship of gangsters or those connected with them, we are determined to keep the shows out of such public places.")

Mrs. Kato concluded the interview by saying, "I'm not an educated woman. But the freedom of profession is guaranteed by the Constitution, isn't it? Can't Tetsuya sing songs as he likes. He is good at writing songs and composing them, too.

"He has been arrested a few times all right. But in one case all he got was a fine. In another case he was detained just overnight.

"Today people kill their own parents and children. What Tetsuya has done were trivial things not worth making a fuss about, don't you agree?"

Japanese Spend Leisure Time Watching TV

TOKYO. — Most Japanese spend the major portion of their leisure time watching television or lying half asleep, according to a Ministry of International Trade and Industry report.

The report was presented recently to the Human Capacity Development Division of the Industrial Structure Council. In it, MITI analyzed the prevailing trend toward the five-day work-week and the outlook for "an era of leisure."

The report said that although leisure - related expenditures have reached Y9,500,000 million annually, according to 1970 figures, the Japanese are still at a loss when it comes to enjoying their holidays.

In contrast with Americans and Europeans, very few Japanese take to trips of theater-going or athletic activities during their leisure time.

The report said an average Japanese male spends two-thirds of his free time watching TV or dozing off or doing both at the same time. Three-fourths of the females do the same, the report said.

It also said that lack of time, money and access to information were some of the factors preventing the Japanese from using their leisure time to their best advantage.

The shortage of leisure facilities as well as administrators of existing facilities pose difficulties for mothers, elderly people and small-factory workers, the report said.

In the future, it said, Japan may follow the U.S. into a life style in which only a minority belonging to "elite" class will be working hard while the general masses will be working shorter hours and devoting more time to enjoying life.

Brilliant Goaltending Duel As Urabe And Turf Fight To 0-0 Draw

TORONTO. — In last Sunday's CJHL action, a brilliant goaltending duel was left unresolved as Turf Cleaners played Urabe Insurance to a 0—0 draw. In the second game Yamara Studio downed Japan Camera 3—2.

Matt Nakamura, tending goal for Turf Cleaners and Bill Latimer, the Urabe goalie, essentially provided the heroics in the first game. Each came up with sparkling performances to register the rare double shutout.

Contrary to what the score suggests, this was on the whole a free wheeling, wide open game with non-stop action.

The passing was crisp and the playmaking sharp, resulting in many scoring opportunities for both teams.

But either Latimer or Nakamura were alwys there to frustrate would-be scorers.

For Turf Cleaners, mired deep in third place, this was without doubt their best overall effort of the season, either in a winning or losing cause.

Although Urabe came through with their usual fine effort, their third line appeared to lack the offensive thrust of their other two forward units. It would seem that the insurancemen sorely miss their centreman Alan Ioi who picked up a ruptured kidney and is unforunately out for the rest of the season.

Although Japan Camera put their best foot forward, once again it proved not enough as they succumbed this time to Yamada Studio by 3—2 count.

Defenseman Richard Nabeta put Yamada on top 1—0 in the first period on a pretty play. After stopping the puck at the point, he shifted around one player and passed into the corner to team mate Ron Kishi. He then took the return pass and slid the puck into the far corner of the net.

Surprisingly. Japan Camera tied it up when Rick Tanaka converted a perfect centring pass from John Ebata.

However, Dave Mitobe followed by Ray Suginomori gave Yamada a commanding 3—1 lead.

Although Paul Uchikata halved the margin to 3—2 with a spectacular individual effort on a Yamada power play in the third, the cameramen could not come any closer.

This was in spite of the fact that Japan had the man power advantage on two consecutive occasions late in the game.

At these crucial moments the cameramen mounted only the occasional tepid threat.

Next Game: Urabe vs. Japan 1:00 p.m., Yamada vs. Turf 2:00 p.m.

Location: George Bell Arena.

Golf "Boomu" Bombing Ou

TOKYO. — Riding on an unprecedented "golf boom" in Japan, golf club manufacturing plants of major enterprises who regard golf clubs as a massive untapped market are in operation — but forecast that the future is not so bright for golf club industry.

Yokoo Monufacturing Co. Ltd.'s golf club and shaft s diary firm, Yokoo Golf, recently conducted an interesting chec predict how long the current golf boom would continue.

According to the check, golf courses total about 700 at sent throughout the nation, and they cover a total land spac about 700 square kilometers — which is roughly one-third of area of greater Tokyo.

There are few places left for golf courses in Chiba, Sa and Kanagawa prefectures in the Kanto district, and even in m tainous Gumma Prefecture only two nice places are left.

In Gumma Prefecture speculative purchasing of land by real estate realers has resulted in a skyrocketing increase in prefecture's land prices, and also in requests for the constr of new golf courses by more than 40 firms, the check points Even assuming further development of transportation m around 1,000 golf courses at most can be built in Japan.

From these considerations, Yokoo Golf concludes that the sent craze for golf will cool down two or three years from although the Japanese golf population, estimated at about 6,50 at present, may expand for some time to come because of incr in spare time and income.

But at the moment golf equipment makers here enjoy a b ing business, anyway. The sales volumes of domestically pro golf clubs are increasing constantly year by year. The gr rate of sales volumes as compared with the previous year 21 percent in 1969, 39 percent in 1970, and 23 percent in 1971; this year over 3,500,000 golf clubs are expected to be sold, wh a 25 percent increase over last year. And the makers say an annual increase rate of about 30 percent can be expected coming two years.

Eagle-eyed Japanese trading firms do not miss this unmis ably profitable business, of course. Mitsui & Co's subsidiary, M & Co. Sports Sales Co., Ltd., put on sale golf clubs with the b name "M & C"; Maruman Golf, a subsidiary of Maruman C leading gas lighter maker, is constructing a golf club manufa ing plant with the largest production capacity in the Orie Matsudo City, Chiba Prefecture; and Daiwa Seiko, Inc., a fi goods maker, plans to double or treble golf club productio

Bridgestone Tire Co., Ltd., meanwhile, this September e blished "Bridgestone Spalding Co., Ltd." a joint venture with stor Corp. of the U.S. which is the maker of "Spalding" c one of the most popular brands in the U.S., will start manufact clubs next May under a knockdown formula.

All of these Japanese business moves point to the fact some major Japanese firms consider golf club making as the " profitable field for their side business."

Stimulated by the advance of major Japanese conglom into the golf industry R. K. Mizuno Sporting Goods Co., which holds a nearly 50 percent share of the domestically pr ed golf club market, is now boosting the production capaci its Yoro plant in Gifu Prefecture by 50 percent Yokoo Mfg

Another factor intensifying competition among domestic makers is a decrease in the prices of imported clubs. Mits

柔肌峠（四二）

山岡荘八

次の間ではまだ酒宴のあと片付けをする人の氣配いが續いている。

（早くみんなが去ってくれますように……）

みんなが去ったらすぐにわが背にまわっている綱吉の腕をとき、幾度となく口の、でくり返したわが身の素姓・身代りの一件を打明けるつもりであった。

『ではごゆるりとご休息のほど』

これも生まじめな切口上で桔梗は次の間へさがっていった。

『若菜、よいか、祈念をこらしての、必ず世継をはらんじくりやれ』

ぐっと相手の腕に力のこもった一瞬、お津万は『あ……』と聲をあげた。

お津万の考えぬいて來たことは　二つの誤算があったらしい。

その一つは、綱吉の欲情があまり突發的で身をかわす隙のなかったこと。そしてもう一つは、自分の体にも、意志とは別のもう一人の女が棲んでいたということであった。

お津万は意志ではきびしく綱吉を拒んでいながら、その胸から逃れようとした時には、全身が甘くしびれて動けなかった。

一人のお津万は綱吉という奇型の人間をひどく憎みさげすんでいる。それなのに、もう一人のお津万は、男という相手をひそかに待ち受けていたらしい。

『若菜……世継をのう』

酒くさい息の下で、

『お許しを』

そう云いはしたが　それさえ舌がもつれて言葉にならぬお津万であった。

◇

お津万はついに綱吉に肌をゆるした。いや、許したのではなくて、それはどうにもならない人間の悲しさからとも云えた。

（どうせ死ぬならば、立派に操を立てとおして……）

そう思っていたのが身を任してしまったので、もはや生きてはいられない氣持に一歩突きすすんだ。

氣がつくと、もう酒宴の間に人の氣配はなくあたりはしんと靜まり返っている。綱吉は　みると、乱酔のあとの疲れで　もうスヤスヤと眠りかけていた。

（いまをはずしては時はない……）

『もし、上様……もし…』

小聲で綱吉の胸のあたりをゆすぶると、

『う…靜かに致せ。祈れ、お世継の出來るように祈れ……』

『もし　上様、申し上げたいことがござりまする』

『それ、明日に致せと申すに』

『でも、是非今宵でなければならないことでござります』

『……わしは祈る。祈りながら眠ってゆく』

『もし、上様　お情けでござりまする、暫らく眼をおさまし下さりませ』

『……』

『上様　私ヶは、実は万里小路家ヶ姫では』

そこまで云ったときだった

次の間でリンリンと、小鈴が鳴った。

『は、鈴が鳴ったな』

綱吉が　ようやくと、ふすまが開くのと一緒であった。

『恐れながら、若菜どの乱酔と見受けますゆえ、退がらせまする』

つかつかと入って來たのは、桔梗ではなくて小谷の方であった。

ガソリン税控除

農者と漁者の車と船用に

〜ビーシー政府の初予算案〜

【ビクトリア】ビーシー州の新民主党政府による予算案が今週発表されたが、それによると、農・漁業者の車やボートの州ガソリン消費税が免除されるなど、いくつかの新政策が盛り込まれているが、大体は前社信党政府の予算案と似通ったものとなっている。

デビット・バレット首相はこの予算案を〝慎重で賢明〟なものと呼んで、四月一日よりはじまる新年度は〝労働者や一般庶民には税金の値上げが全くない〟ものにすると、その抱負を述べた。

しかし、会社・団体などビジネスには、増税が課せられることになる。州企業所得税はカナダ最低であった一〇％から一二％に増え、更に資本金の千分の一にあたる税金を新らしく各会社から徴集する。

ところで、〃の新予算案では、ビーシー州の二大産業である森林業及び鉱業に関する増税が盛られていないが、バレット首相は現在研究中の答申が出てから初めて何らかの方策が採られると語った。

石油資源についてバレット首相は〝ビーシー州の油田と天然ガス田は大幅に値張され、新年度に九百万弗のローヤリティーが入る〟と述べた。

又、漁者のボート及び農者の公道外に用いる車両と農園用トラックの燃料も免除すると、ガソリン税据置き、大気汚染も殆んど起こさない液化燃料ガスの減税なども行なわれる。

記者会見に臨んだビジネス関係者は、新予算案が比較的前政府と似通ったもので反企業的な色彩が薄いとし、安堵の色を見せていたという。

大ト市は〝観光中心地〟

昨年オ州外客は三九六万余人

メトロ・トロント観光局が今週発表したところによると、大ト市を昨年中訪問したオ州以外の観光客数は三百五十六万三千人と見積られている。一昨年より一〇％増し、観光収入は五千三百四十万弗。

更、市内で大会開催及びトレードショウに参加した代表者は約十四万五千人。これも昨年より五％増で収益三千八百七十万弗。合計九千百十万弗が昨年度の観光収入となっている。

メトロ・トロントは北米におけるコンベンションとツーリストの中心地となっている。観光局ではほくほく。今年から一九八一年までにト市で開催予定の大会とトレード・ショウは三百九十一件。これらからあがる利益はざっと五百万弗。

カツオ責めに閉口

冬季のノバ・スコシアでの話

夏の間は観光客でにぎわうノバ・スコシア州も、冬はヒッソリと雪に包まれて何処となく活気がなくなつてしまう。

私は去年の冬をハリファックス市で過ごしたが、東部一の不凍港もセントローレンス河の凍結が遅れたためとかで昨冬は覇気がなく退屈な冬であつた。

ノバ・スコシア州のロブスターをはじめとする漁業も冬の間は低調で、フイッシャーマンは失業保険を受けている者も多いと聞いたが、それでも新鮮な魚類にお目にかかれるのは、長い冬の大きな楽しみの一つであつた。ロブスターの値段は好・不漁による上り下りはあるけれども、一パウンド二弗内外で、時折りセイタクをする気で買いこんでオーブンの中でジュジュウウする音を聞きながら焼き上がるのを待つ時間というのは、何んとも嬉しいものであつた。ヘリングを大量に買いこんで、サワー・クリームに漬けこんだり、地元の人たちが殆んど食べない、カを買つてフライしたり、塩辛をつくつたりするのも、やはり海の近くに住む者への恩恵であつた。

また、ハリファアックスで極めて美味しい食べ物に、フイッシュ・アンド チップスがあつた。勿論北アメリカ何処でも食べられるスナックだが、よく行つた港のそばの裏通りにある専門店で食べるそれは最高の味だと私は今も信じている。店のカウンターに座つて、揚げたてのゴールデン・ブラウンのフイッシュを、海のすぐそばで食べる、港町の情緒である。

ある時、カツオとロブスターぜめに合つて閉口したことがあつた。というのは街を歩いていて、折からハリファックスの港に、燃料などを補給のため寄港した日本漁船の船員である二人の日本人青年に偶然会つたとき、誘われるままに船まで遊びに行つた。船の内部を見て驚いたのは、まるで〃浮かぶ工場〃のようで、網の巻き上げから魚の選別、水洗い、冷凍、箱詰め、そし、船倉の冷凍庫への貯蔵までも、一貫した流れ作業で行なわれているのであつた。

帰り際に「カツオを持つて行くか?」と聞かれ、貰うと言つたのはよかつたが船倉から目の下三呎はある冷凍のカツオと、大箱詰めのロブスター・テールを運んできて、全部持つて行けという。折角なので、やつとの思いで運んで帰つたけれど、それからの二週間程はロブスター(この方は白人の友人達も大いに喜んで食べてくれ、かなり処分できた)とカツオ サシミにし、煮付けにし、ステーキにしても、あまり好評は得られなかつた)に明け暮れて文字通り食傷した。カツオ一尾を殆んど一人で平らげるのは豪華といえば豪華な話だが――。

魚でもう一つ驚いたのは鮪を買つた時で 魚市場に姿の良い鮪を見つけて、数尾を求めて帰つた。いざ、クックしようとして包みを開けてみると、一尾ずつプラスチック・バッグに入つていて、その上に目立たない白つぽい字で、養鮪・静岡・ジャパンとあり、カナダも魚類の少なくないハリファックスで買つた魚が日本の養殖魚であつたのだ。これには、私ならずとも驚ろくのではなかろうか。

ノバ・スコシア州で一番美しいのは、沿海州一般にそうだが、入江ごとの小さな漁村であろう。小さな漁村の桟橋に積み上げられたその日の漁獲を、前掛け姿で処理している漁夫の姿はどことなく呑気で落着いた風情である。ただ、前述の日本船、東欧、ソビエットなどの大型トロール船が、大西洋でも、それこそ根こそぎに荒つぽい漁をしている時に、比べものにならない小型船で個人の規模での沿海州の漁業がどこまで太刀打ちできるかには、少なからぬ不安を覚えざるを得ない。(武田峻)

圓の為替レート フロートに移行

事實上、再切上げにふみ切る

【東京時事】政府は十三日愛知蔵相を中心に圓問題の取り扱いを協議した結果、東京外為市場を十四日午前九時再開、同時に圓の為替レートを變動相場制に移行させることを正式に決め發表した。

日本が變動相場制を採用するのは一昨年八月二十八日―十二月十八日以來二度目で、これにより日本は事実上圓再切り上げにふみ切つたことになつた。

愛知蔵相は十四日からの變動相場制実施にともない次のような談話を發表した

政府は十四日からの外為市場を再開するとともに當分の間外国為替の賣買相場についての變動巾の制限を停止することにした。今回の措置は最近の国際通貨危機に對處するため、米国がドルの切り下げを行なうことを通知してきたのに對してとられたものである。政府としては今後の国際通貨情勢の推移を愼重に見守りつつ、できるだけ早い機会に固定相場に復歸したいと考えている。なお政府としては經濟の安定的成長を今後とも引き續き確保するため万全を期する所存である。

一弗が二七〇圓

圓がフロートされたため米一弗は二八〇圓前後となり、二七〇圓にまで落ち込もうとしている。東京為替市場での弗買いは二七三・一〇圓から二七一・六〇圓となり、なお下降氣味

ドル平價 一〇%切下げ

カナダ弗は當分パーを維持

【ワシントン】国際的通貨危機に對處するため、米政府のシュルツ財務長官は十二日突如記者会見を行ない、大統領は議会に對し為替レートの變更の權限を要請、ドル平價を一〇%切り下げることになると發表した。米ドルの再切り下げはこれで十四カ月間に二度目。

この一〇%切り下げによつて米製品は海外市場で安値となり、米国に輸出する製品は高値になるわけで、米国は輸出を大いに助長し赤字貿易をできるだけ縮少しようというのである。

【オタワ】米国の米ドル一〇%切り下げについて、カナダ當局者は『フロートされているカナダ・ドルは、米ドルに伴つて浮動されていくことになろう』とみており、カナダ・ドルの急激な變動はますみられないとしている。ただ、カナダ・ドルが米ドルより一〇%も安くなれば、それだけ對米輸出に有利だと考えているが、いまのところ為替相場はパーを維持している。

三月中に解散か

豫算案をめぐり倒閣の危機

新民主黨元国會議員で、トロント・サン紙のコラムニストであるダグラス・フィシャー氏は今週同紙上に次のように国會危機を論じている。

△二月十日から三月末までの間に、第二十九回オタワ議会は解散の段階に到達するであろう。この一カ月間に自由党は『あきらめ』、保守黨は『よろこび』とし新民主党は『いらいら』することになろう。

△こう判断するのは元議員であつた私個人の見方で、たとえ間違つたとしても誰も責めはしないだろう。肝腎な予算演説が十九日に行なわれ、六日間におよぶ審議がつづくが、予算案採決が政府の命脈を決定することになろう。

△それに先きだち、新民主黨は予算修正案を持ち出して政府に迫り、採決となれば保守黨が新民主党に加担して、政府の敗退をみちびく。ツルドー首相は總督により議会解散を求める手段をとる他はないだろう。

ラオス及びカンボジア両國ではいまなお交戰がくり返えされている。

米国としてはキッシンジャー[illegible]入りしたことで、カンボジアにおける停戦成立の可能が探まるものと期待しており、協定が成立すれば、カナダ停戦監視團がカンボジアでも同様任務につくよう要請しているというのである。

カナダ大使館を增員

對日政策の重要變更

新任大使のむつかしい任務

【東京】カナダ政府は近年中に日本を太平洋岸諸国の主要な貿易相手とするべく政策や重点を變換しつつある。

駐日新大使の赴任の背景には カナダが日本と持續的關係を持つため土台固め ある見られる。トロント生れのロ・キャンベル大使(五四)は前任のもうン大使(六カ)が昨年末、六年半の對日外交活動の末、引退した後を繼いで大使に就任した。英国の欧州共同体へ加入して、カナダが英連邦の恩惠を受けにくくなつたことと、米国からの資本投入が大きな非難を浴びている現在、その制限のため、太平洋岸諸国、とくに日本との強固な關係を結ぶことは必須のこととみられている。

東京のカナダ大使館では外交、工業、通商の各部門が増強されているが、カナダはアジア諸国への接近を深めるであろう。

キャンベル新大使は、日本の對カナダ貿易の問題点である原料供給[illegible]しのカナダの立場を轉換させるべく、日本側を説得に當る困難な任務を帯びている。カナダと日本の十五億九千万ドル(一九七一年)にのぼる貿易額のうち、日本が主に工業製品を輸出しているのに對して、カナダは九〇%が原材料の輸出であり日本への工業製品、食料品衣類など輸出の割合を増やすよう貿易關係を變えることが、キャンベル氏の重要な任務の一つである。
